

Adam is a Partner of Global View . Adam is a native of Iva, SC and graduated Cum Laude from Wofford College with a Bachelor of Arts in Finance. While at Wofford, he participated on the Football Team as both a back up and starting quarterback. He worked with Merrill Lynch for 2 years prior to joining Global View. Prior to Merrill Lynch, Adam worked 10 years, in several trading capacities, within the Commodity Lumber business.

Adam's primary focus is on retirement planning, risk management, and new client identification. He has extensive experience and training in identifying client's needs and explaining the solutions that meet those needs.

Adam has been married to Laurie since July of 2006. They live on Wilton St. in Greenville's North Main area and are looking forward to creating a family. Adam still enjoys athletics of many types and he and Laurie look for any opportunity to get outside and enjoy all that Greenville has to offer.